It's About Time

that you were making up your mind from what Jeweler's stock you intend to make your selection of Holiday Gifts.

We are prepared in every way for a large trade in all of our wares, but in diamonds especially—clear, well-cut and first water goods—diamonds from the fields of the Amazon and the mines of Kimberly.

What's wonderful about them, though, is the price rate we've fixed—way down below market value, therefore much lower than the charges of your regular jeweler.

Then besides, the assortment which is yours is most prodigious.

There's a very pretty, well-set solitaire beginning one end of our list at $5 which gives you an inkling as to what lots of value there is in the ring we offer at $150.

There's hundreds of ways in which they are set, though; pendants, stars, brooches, scarf pins, set in watch charms, in fact, in a limitless number of fashions.

In regards to Gold Jewelry, that is goods a little lower in price—our array is infinite.

We've selected the prettiest stock of Fine China in the town—plates, cups and saucers, vases, and so forth. The coloring and delicate appearance of these wares is exquisite. Among them there's Limoges, Sevres and Haviland. Put up very daintily, too, in white silk-lined boxes, $3.25 up.

THREE DEBUTANTES MAKE THEIR BOWS

Miss Fuller, Miss Rockhill and Miss Catlin Introduced.

Brilliant Teas Served to Launch Them in the Social World—Society Notes and Personalities.

The handsome home of Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, on Massachusetts avenue, was garlanded and wreathed throughout every room yesterday afternoon with anaxias, evergreens, and ferns, and the air was perfumed with gay-colored flowers set in vases and bowls of silver and crystal, in honor of the debut of Miss Fuller, young daughter of the house.

Assisting in receiving were: Mrs. Aubrey, Miss Fuller, Mrs. Hall, Miss Ruth Harlan, Miss Harlan, Miss Scott, Miss Maury, Miss Pitts, Miss Leach, Miss Norris, Miss Wilcox, Miss Rochester, and Miss Condit-Smith.

The immense number of callers included the names of all the members of the Supreme Court and their families, the Cabinet, Army and Navy and residential society.

Miss Dorothy Rockhill, the attractive daughter of the Third Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Rockhill, was presented to society yesterday afternoon at a tea from 4 to 7 o'clock. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Rockhill was transformed into a bower of roses and violets by the friends of the graceful young girl, in whose honor the affair was given.

Many of American beauty roses, tied with broad ribbons the same shade, and baskets of pink and white roses and lilies and orchids surrounded her as she stood to receive her guests.

Miss Rockhill wore a gown of white organdie made very full over white silk and trimmed with tiny frills of narrow Valenciennes lace. A collar and girdle of white satin spangled with silver completed the girlish and dainty effect.

Mrs. Rockhill, who is an extremely handsome woman, of the type of beauty one always expects to find in a Baltimore belle, was garlanded in green and white striped silk, trimmed about the bodice with green velvet and lace. Miss Alice Langhorne, Miss Nott, Miss May Maiben, Miss Cassels, Miss Edith McCammon and Miss Norris were those who assisted in receiving and in serving tea, chocolate and punch in the dining-room.

One of the most artistic teas of the season was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Peck, at the Wilson residence, on Nineteenth street.

The drawing room was decorated with pink chrysanthemums of the Japanese variety and the candles were shaded in leaf green.

At one end of the hallway was stationed the Metropolitan Mandolin and Guitar Quartet, which furnished a delightful program throughout the evening.

The tea table was beautifully arranged.

PIANOS!

WE are frank and honest and will stake the reputation of this house which, in your midst, has maintained its standing for strict integrity for nearly forty years, that we sell only at a legitimate margin and our prices are never so high as to admit of the "so-called" GREAT CUT in prices, as our profits do not allow it, and any one with a grain of common sense knows that a dealer will not sell at a loss, so in buying a piano (which, perhaps, is once in a life time) make up your mind to get a STANDARD grade and pay a reasonable price. One of the oldest firms in the Union is the

HALLET & DAVIS

Piano Company, of Boston. This great body of piano makers has enjoyed a most enviable reputation for more than 45 years. We are their agents and want to call your attention to their 1896 upright! It is a lovely piano, having three pedals, a magnificent and rich tone, contains all of Hallet & Davis' latest patents and is really a "beauty" in every sense of the word. Our price on these pianos until Jan. 1 will be and it may be bought either for cash or on monthly payments of $10 each. A handsome stool, Japanese silk scarf and book goes with it. Ask also to see the Mathushek, Gabler, and Steinway. Courtrooms salesmen in attendance to show you the goods at

DROOP'S

New Steinway Piano Parlors,

925 Pennsylvania Avenue.
